

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE - Growing New Energy Jobs Downstate

WORKING AGENDA, Round #2

John A. Logan College

Tuesday, July 25, 2017 • 1:00 pm to 4:30 pm

OPENING
1:00 pm to 1:50 am	Welcome and Introduction Basics of FEJA (what you need to know going into these workshops)
TIME	AGENDA ITEM
1:50 pm to 2:00 pm	Move to workshops
2:00 pm to 3:15 pm	Workshop I - Community Solar What is community solar, and how can I participate (as a consumer or project developer)? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Incentives and how to access them. • Working with Ameren. • Limitations by rural electric cooperatives. • Funding options. • Building solar on brownfields / mined lands. • FEJA timeline. Workshop leader: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Michelle Knox, WindSolar USA. Michell is both founder and owner of WindSolarUSA, Inc., a turn-key renewable energy company located in Central Illinois. Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interested landowners. • Businesses and industry. • Elected officials. • Church leaders. • Institutions (hospitals, schools, etc.). • Economic development coordinators. • Regional planning Commission directors / boards. • Solar installers.
1:50 pm to 2:00 pm	Move to workshops
2:00 pm to 3:15 pm	Workshop III - Solar for All What is Solar for All, and why is it important? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to solar for economically-disadvantaged populations. • How to integrate with energy efficiency programs. • Providing job training and hiring job trainees. • Maximizing community participation for solar projects. • Best practices and case studies. • FEJA timeline. Workshop leader: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ingrid Schwingler, GRID Alternatives. GRID is the country's largest nonprofit solar installer, focusing their work in economically-disadvantaged communities. Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workforce training programs coordinators.. • Economic development coordinators. • Church leaders. • Community-based organizations. • Elected officials.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE - Growing New Energy Jobs Downstate
WORKING AGENDA, Round #2 (continued)

TIME	AGENDA ITEM	TIME	AGENDA ITEM
3:15 pm to 3:30 pm	Move to next workshop	3:15 pm to 3:30 pm	Move to next workshop
3:30 pm to 4:30 pm	Workshop II - How to Work with Rural Electric Cooperatives What does it mean for community solar, now: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Rural Cooperatives and utilities excluded from FEJA ● Arguments by cooperatives against community solar. ● Countering those arguments with facts. ● Mobilizing for change. Workshop Leader: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Michelle Knox, WindSolar USA, Inc.. Michell is both founder and owner of WindSolarUSA, Inc., a turn-key renewable energy company located in Central Illinois. Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● General public. ● Economic development coordinators. ● Regional planning commission boards and directors. ● Elected officials. ● Community-based organizations. ● Church leaders. 	3:30 pm to 4:30 pm	Workshop IV - How to get into the Solar Energy Field What are the job opportunities in solar energy. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● What professions are most needed. ● Certification and training. ● Training associated with the Solar for All Program. Workshop leader: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Aur Beck. Advanced Energy Solutions Group, Inc. Aur is both founder of and chief tech for AES, a design/build electrical contractor specializing in the design and installation of solar electric systems. Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Coal miners. ● Labor. ● General public.